Fall conference attendees gain knowledge of Auxiliary national programs and have ample opportunities to present their questions to the national officers and chairmen. The conference also provides a means to connect with other auxiliary members, share ideas, and discover what other auxiliary units are doing in their mission of service to veterans and their families.

A Health and Wellness Fair is scheduled for Thursday from 1:00 pm – 4:00 pm, and will give members a chance to speak with representatives from companies such as Life Alert, Ford, the Diabetes Association, and the VA Medical Center.

Show your patriotic pride by wearing red, white, and blue to the opening business session on Thursday evening.

New for 2017: There will not be a banquet this year. Instead, join us for a casual and relaxing hospitality event on Friday evening, and prepare to be entertained by some local comedians. Light food offerings and drinks will be available. Don't forget to charge up your cameras for the photo booth!

The reception on Saturday evening will allow members to put on their dancing shoes and make memories with old friends and new.

Transportation Information:

The Lexington Embassy Suites is located 9 miles from the Blue Grass Airport (LEX). Taxi, Uber, and Lyft services are available.

Registration - $50 (for all attending, including guests)

Registration fees are paid at the DAV Auxiliary registration desk at the conference hotel.
